REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS.

It is now nine years since the necessity for a Home for working boys, in our fast growing city, forced itself upon the minds of those who projected this Institution. Of the sixty persons who then became associated for this purpose, ten only remain in the present Boards, five councillors and five managers. Four managers and five councillors have been called from all earthly work, and forty-two have, for various reasons, withdrawn from its active management.

Notwithstanding all these changes, we present the report for the year 1874, with hearts deeply impressed with the success of a work of constantly increasing responsibility. This was especially felt when during last year, 52 boys were transferred to the Educational Home, a change which caused us serious anxiety for the future of our finances, as they were mostly State Soldiers' Orphans. It was thought best for the interest of all the boys, that the younger ones should be separated from those who were old enough to be placed at work; we therefore acted in simple reliance upon our pure motives, leaving the result to the guidance of Him who governs all things: our experience has proved the wisdom of our decision, and the friends of the Institution by their continued liberality, have enabled us to close the year entirely free from debt. We still feel the necessity for proper rooms for reading and amusement. If we are enabled to afford proper recreation to the boys at Home the temptation for seeking entertainment elsewhere is greatly lessened. We therefore sincerely hope that before the close of another year we may be able to obtain this much to be desired improvement, either by the purchase of the adjoining house, or by some other arrangement.

During the last year 16 boys have been admitted into the Institution, 21 have been discharged to return to their homes, 54 transferred to the Educational Home, and 30 returned from the Educational Home to the "Lincoln." The present number of inmates in the Institution is 84. Since our organization we have numbered 250 boys.

In so large a number of young boys it was impossible not to find some whose conduct was in some respects unsatisfactory; but it is gratifying to be able to report that we have had comparatively few who have given us serious cause for complaint. We are happy to say that the majority have taken advantage of their opportunities, and have endeavored to reward our labors for them and the interest shown in them, by attention to their studies and business.

With the exception of the care of the library and musical instruction, by one of the Managers, and of a Bible class, consisting of the older boys, taught in the building every Sunday morning, by another of the ladies, the Board of Council have the entire charge of the school department. Their duties have been faithfully performed, and by a reference to their report, full particulars will be found upon this subject.

At the Alumni supper last Easter there were 45 graduates present; all of these were in respectable positions and earning an independent living. We are indebted to our Councillor, Mr. Lemuel Coffin, for defraying the expenses of this supper, and also the Thanksgiving Dinner.

Thanksgiving Day and Christmas were celebrated at the Educational Home, as it is thought wisest to unite the two Institutions on festive occasions. The older boys enjoy the change to the country, and find a great source of pleasure in the out-door sports in which they are there able to indulge.

We have to lament the demise of our early and liberal friend and Councillor, Mr. J. Edgar Thomson: his interest in our work dates from its inception, and his liberal bequest for the founding of a sister institution proves the sincerity of his love for work of this kind.

To our Medical Board we tender our earnest thanks; although we have been mercifully spared any serious sickness during the year, they have been always prompt when called upon to visit those requiring their care.

Our sincere thanks are also due to Mr. J. P. Brock, for another liberal donation of 75 tons of coal, and to the Directors of the Camden and Atlantic Railroad, for the enjoyment given to our officers and boys, by a free excursion to Atlantic City, on September 12th; also to the Dorcas Society of Dr. Furness' church, for the very liberal assistance given by them in making up a large amount of clothing for the boys; also to Alderman Robert R. Smith for official signature to numerous documents. Our thanks are due to the Members of the Orpheus Club for the delightful concert given by them last June, and to the Trustees and Students of the Divinity School, West Philadelphia, for so beautifully decorating the grounds on that occasion.

We mention with earnest thankfulness that four of the boys were confirmed last Spring at the Church of the Epiphany.

It is with pleasure that we record the continued efficiency of our Superintendents, Matrons and Teachers, no change has been made in them during the year. This is especially gratifying, as change in this department is always found detrimental to the interests and welfare of any corporation.

We cordially thank our contributors for their continued support, and we commend our work anew to their confidence; and to the care of Him who has so greatly blessed us in the past, to whom we look for wisdom to guide and govern us in the future.

By order of the Board,

MARGARET Y. CLAY,

Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF COUNCIL.

THE Board of Council of the Lincoln Institution, present their report for the year 1874.

Another of these pleasing anniversaries has arrived, when we meet, to review the past work and events of the year, and to gather strength for fresh progress in our paths of official, as well as personal duty.

It is a source of great pleasure, as was remarked in our last annual report, that the work of the Institution has progressed, "unmarked by any event of special import." All the plans and arrangements of the Managers, have worked like well arranged and finely adjusted machinery,—smoothly, quietly, and harmoniously—and a spirit of peace and good will has characterized the mutual intercourse of the inmates of the Institution, and those who have the rule over them.

The work of the Educational Departments has been most ably carried on, under the special care of its efficient committee, whose unwearied efforts, zeal and good judgment, have done much to promote its success.

We have now belonging to the school, 74 boys, almost all of whom are under the age of 16 years, and their progress, has been marked by great improvement. The specimens of their hand writing are admirable, and their general advancement in their various studies has been well attested by their examinations, held before the State Superintendent.

The schools still continue under the excellent care and direction of Miss Toland and Mrs. Pine, both of whom are connected with the Educational Home.

We have now at present 84 boys, as residents of the Institution, all of whom are engaged at various trades or occupations, the number being increased since last year, from 60 to 84 working boys, these embracing all its inmates.

The various holidays and festivals during the year, have, by a very judicious arrangement of the Managers, been passed by the boys, at the Educational Home; after attendance upon church in West Philadelphia (on such occasions as required) the boys marched to the Home, and enjoyed the freedom which its pleasure grounds, and adjacent woods and country afforded—a vast improvement on the former holidays, passed within the walls of their daily home. Thus the opportunity is given for more healthful physical exercise than before attained in such intervals of leisure.

The general health of the Institution has been excellent—few cases of indisposition have occurred, and none of a serious nature.

While within the last few months, so much sickness has prevailed among the young, and particularly that of an epidemic character in some institutions of learning, our Institution has by God's good care been saved from the "pestilence that walketh in darkness, nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday."

We desire to return our thanks to Col. Bell, of the Educational Committee, for the kind interest he has taken in the general affairs of the Institution; also to Miss Coxe, for her devoted attention to the amusements and reading of the boys during their hours of leisure, in the reading and play rooms; and to Miss Wagner, for her Bible class instruction.

The great want of our Institution, is that of sufficient accommodation. Many of the boys are now of an age when more personal quiet and privacy is required, especially the latter, when visited by their friends and relatives, and also more space for the Reading Rooms. This matter was brought before the Board of Council, sometime since, and a committee was appointed to procure a location, or examine the adjoining property on the south so as to determine its availability for the purpose needed.

During the past year, we have been called on to mourn the loss of J. Edgar Thomson, Esq., one of the most distinguished and valuable members of our Board of Council, whose kind and generous liberality, and warm interest in all connected with the Institution, causes his loss to be deeply felt.

In closing we desire to express our great appreciation of the services rendered by the Superintendent and Matron of the Institution; their daily faithful attention to the interests of the boys, and good government of the house, deserve special commendation and remembrance.

We also desire to return our thanks to Mrs. Hayes for the musical instruction given the boys gratuitously, which added so much to the success of the last entertainment.

We have thus endeavored to lay before our contributors a general statement of the condition of the Institution, throughout the year last passed.

The responsibilities upon the Managers are great—so to instruct by moral as well as scriptural example and precept those committed to their care, so that they may “walk worthy of their vocation and calling in this present life.”

The prosperity of this Institution has been unprecedented—may it never lose its hold upon the public affection, for if the blood of the martyrs was the seed of the church, that of the soldiers of our Republic has nourished and caused to grow in eternal beauty that “Tree of Liberty,” under the shade of whose branches all may be protected and sheltered in absolute freedom and peace.

Signed,

J. B. MOORHEAD, President.

J. VAUGHAN MERRICK, Vice-President.

JAS. W. HAZLEHURST, Secretary.
